

Carol Bibler began volunteering with Foy's to Blacktail in 2008 and joined the Board in 2011. She has lived most of her life in Montana and returned to the Flathead for good in 2001 with her husband and son. She co-chairs FTBT's Fundraising Committee and serves as the organization's webmaster.

"This is a tremendous asset for our community. The increase in use of these trails by all sorts of people is remarkable. It's so important to keep access to this special place open permanently – the alternative is grim. Once gems like this are gone, they're gone."