

Jenny Cloutier was born and raised in the Flathead Valley and has been visiting Herron Park for over twenty years. She is dedicated to the expansion of Herron Park and the stunning recreational access it allows both residents and visitors to the Kalispell area. Throughout the year she visits the park to hike and ski with friends, family and her dog Tahki.

“I feel so fortunate to share in this exciting opportunity to help secure lands for all of us to share. New park lands are not created every day! The potential of setting aside a popular and beautiful place for generations to come is so exciting. “
